

Australian Financial Services Licensing

CoPeak Corporate Pty Ltd is The Trustee for Peak Asset Management Unit Trust ("CoPeak") and is an authorised representative (#1249050) of Equity Underwriters Pty Ltd (AFSL #244040).

General Information

The information, opinions and other materials appearing on the Web Site are of a general nature only and shall not be construed as advice. CoPeak accepts no responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of the information, opinions or other materials provided on or accessible through the Web Site. The Web Site has not been prepared with reference to your individual financial or personal circumstances. Where this Web Site contains reference to any financial products, you should obtain the current Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), Prospectus or other disclosure documents for the particular products and consider this information before making any decisions regarding the products. You should not rely on any advice in this Web Site without first seeking appropriate professional, financial and legal advice. Further, where CoPeak makes third party material available or accessible through the Web Site you acknowledge that CoPeak is a distributor and not a publisher of that content and that its editorial control is limited to the selection of those materials to make available.

General Advice Warning:

Information provided by CoPeak is General Advice and does not take account of your objectives, financial situation or needs. Before acting on this General Advice you should consider the appropriateness of the information having regard to your situation. CoPeak recommends investors obtain professional financial advice and consider all relevant information and material before an investment decision is made.

COPEAK

For information and material relating to CoPeak's financial services and products, fees and scope of the licensing, please read and consider the Financial Services Guide (FSG) on the website: www.peakassetmanagement.com.au